INSTRUCTIONS

Abstracts | New Abstract

Abstracts

This page displays a list of the abstracts you have created. It shows the ID, title, submission type, current status and the requested presentation format. Click on the ID to view the abstract. If your abstract has been accepted, the details of your presentation can be seen by clicking on the Details and Uploads link in the right column.

Status

"Submitted" means that the abstract has been saved and is ready to be reviewed, after the closing date. When you have finished submitting your abstract, the status should be "Submitted". Please note that you can still edit a submitted abstract, until the closing date.

"Incomplete" means that you have begun to enter the details of the abstract submission, and what has been input thus far has been saved. However, the abstract is not completed and it has not been formally submitted for consideration by the reviewers.

"Draft" means that the abstract has been saved on the server, but is not yet finished and you have not submitted for review.

"Accepted" means that your abstract has been reviewed and has been accepted for inclusion in the conference program. If program details have been

ID	Title	Submission Type	Status	Presentation Requested	Presentation Type	Details & Uploads
1433	How might climate change effects in British Columbia affect birds? Applying SpaDES to boreal songbirds in British Columbia, Canada	Abstract	Submitted	-

presentation and session details.

27th International
Ornithological Congress